Love You'll Be True

Words and Music

by

JOHN H. W. BYRNE.

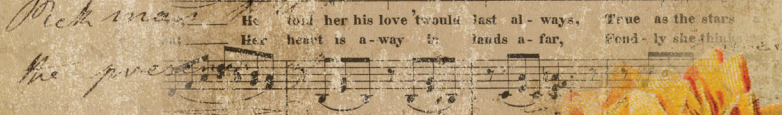

NEW-YORK,
WILLIS WOODWARD & CO.
842 & 844 BROADWAY.

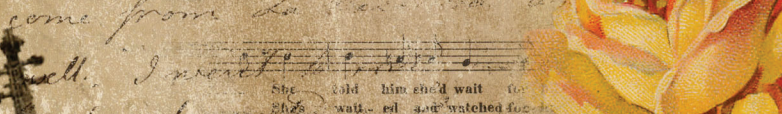

Andante.
Bird hearts they stood on a vine-clad porch, Pleading their word of eye or tale
And said she stands on a vine-clad porch, Ser- row her eyes now

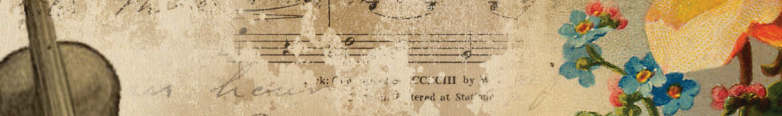

He told her his love would last al- ways, True as the stars
Her heart is a-way fr- leads a- far, Fond- ly she thin-

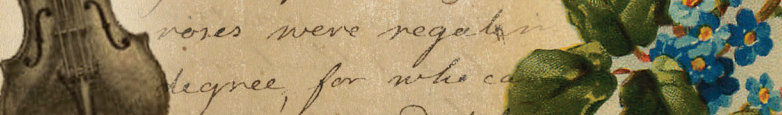

She told him she'd wait for him, till he should come And said she'd watch for him, till he should come and painting it

roses were regaling

degree, for who can requisite and deli-

Wick man that I think of her the presence of her favourite
